ORDER

As a part of regulatory measures to facilitate containment of Novel Corona Virus Disease (COVID-19) in the State, orders were issued, vide papers read above, declaring Sundays as Lock Down days with only limited permissible activities. Since the places of worships have been allowed for public from 8th June onwards and as many entrance as well as other competitive exams are being conducted on Sundays, Government are pleased to exclude the following activities and movement of persons connected with those activities from the restrictions imposed on Sundays:

- i. Movement of devotees from home to place of worship and back.
- ii. Conduct of exams, movement of students and personnel to attend the exams and for making arrangements for conducting exams. They shall be allowed to travel using their admit card and identity cards respectively.
- iii. Movement of students to join their allotted Medical Colleges/Dental Colleges and other educational institutions. Their allotment letter shall be considered as movement pass.

[2] District Collectors, District Police Chiefs and other Heads of Departments shall enforce the instructions scrupulously with due diligence.
