Abstract

GAD- Covid-19 - regulations to contain the Novel Corona Virus (COVID-19)– unlocking of general lock down phase -2 and extension of lock down in containment zones - conduct of exams by private coaching centres - orders issued

General Administration (Secret Section) Department

G.O.(Rt)No.2179/2020/GAD

Dated, Thriuvananthapuram, 01.07.2020

Read: 1. Order no. 40-3/2020-DM-I(IA) dated 29.06.2020 from MHA, GoI

2. G.O.(Ms)No.127/2020/GAD, dated 30.06.2020

ORDER

As a measure to contain the spread of COVID-19 pandemic in the country, Central and State Governments, as per orders read above, have issued guidelines for phase-2 unlocking of general lock down, to extend the general lock down in containment zones and also to regulate activities in a planned manner outside containment zones. As per the orders Educational institutions will remain closed till 31st July-2020.

Many private coaching centres have requested government to allow them to conduct examinations for the courses which have already been completed, failing which the students may lose their chances for applying for new courses, jobs etc.

Government, having considered the matter in detail, are pleased to order that the coaching centres, including private ones, can conduct examination, for the courses which have already been completed, after obtaining prior permission from the District Collectors concerned. They shall follow all the social distancing norms and health advisories issued by government from time to time, including wearing of masks and use of sanitizer by students and exam functionaries.

The District Collectors and District Police Chief shall ensure that the examination centres have sufficient space to conduct the exam following the social distancing norms and that all health advisories are followed during the conduct of exam.
